

TechCorp IT Security Policy

Sample training document for the Enterprise Multi-PDF RAG demonstration.

Approved Devices

- Employees must use company-approved devices when accessing internal systems.
- Personal devices may not access confidential production systems unless explicitly approved by IT Security.

Access Control

- Employees should use multi-factor authentication where supported.
- Access to sensitive systems follows the principle of least privilege.